- Conditions for Readmission
 - No more than 3 years from the date of dropout or expulsion.
 - Students who belong to the following categories are not eligible for readmission
 - Those who are expelled for exceeding enrollment duration limit (Up to students enrolled in 2008)
 - Those who are expelled for exceeding enrollment duration limit or who are expelled or voluntarily withdraw after getting enrollment duration limit extended (Starting from student enrolled in 2009)
 - ※ The suspension period (3 years) does not include time taken for military service or medical treatment (needed to attach supporting documents for proof)

- Readmission is possible after 2 semesters including the semester in which dropping out or expulsion occurred.

Readmission Application and Review Process

Recommendation for Readmission by Department

- The candidate is evaluated on academic capacity, remaining number of semesters, and possibility of graduation based on the advisor's opinion on readmission and future study plan by a three-member review committee consisting of the advisor, department head, and department professor or a department-related committee.
- For undergraduate students, the Dean of Student Affairs & Policy will interview the recommended candidate and results will be announced through the Academic and Research Review Committee.
- ※ Students who were on Undeclared Major at the time of dropping out or expulsion must choose an intended department and will be reviewed by the department
